

Family Law Orientation "FLO" Registration Information

An orientation to Family Court for parties without attorneys.

Presented by:
King County Superior Court
Early Resolution Case Managers

The Family Law Orientation (FLO) is designed to provide parties, without representation, with information on the court process, including court rules and resource information.

MANDATORY ATTENDANCE

Pursuant to King County Superior Court Local Family Law Rule 20, all unrepresented parties to an action filed under RCW Chapter 26.09, including Dissolutions of Marriage, Legal Separations, and major Parenting Plan Modifications, must attend this orientation within 30 days of filing or receipt of service. All parties to a case must attend the FLO. A registration form should be served upon the other party/parties with the Case Schedule.

If your case is not filed under Chapter 26.09 RCW, you are encouraged (but not required) to attend.

If you have already attended the FLO and you have a case filed in King County, please file a copy of your Certificate of Completion with the King County Clerk's office [Room E609 in Seattle; Room 1D in Kent].

Please call (206) 477-1464 [for Seattle] or (206) 477-2745 [for Kent] to request alternate formats, reasonable accommodations, or for other questions.

SECURITY

Security of participants is of great importance. King County Superior Court Family Court reserves the right to take measures to ensure the safety of FLO participants. You will not be admitted to the FLO if you are carrying a weapon (per RCW 9A.1.300) or if you are under the influence of drugs/alcohol. You will be asked to leave the FLO if you exhibit behavior that is disruptive or threatening to the participants or the presenter.

Children cannot attend and childcare is not provided.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS ENCOURAGED

Every effort will be made to ensure participants can attend as requested. Same day attendance is possible, however, orientation sessions are filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Early registration is encouraged. If any restrictions are in place, you will not be scheduled for the same seminar as the other party.

If your registration form is not completely filled out, including payment and verification of income, it will delay your registration. No registration will be accepted online or over the phone. You will receive confirmation of the FLO date, time and location by mail or email advising which session you are to attend.

A schedule of FLO classes is available at the King County Clerk's Office, Family Court Services [Room W-280 in Seattle; Room 1D in Kent] or online at www.kingcounty.gov/courts/familycourt/services.aspx.

RESCHEDULING

Parties are permitted one opportunity to reschedule, without additional fee, up to 30 days past the scheduled session date.

INTERPRETER SERVICES

Court-appointed interpreters will be provided, upon request, at no charge for King County cases for seminars in Kent or Seattle locations.

Court-appointed interpreters are not available for 7:45 am seminars.

You must pre-register if you are requesting a court-appointed interpreter.

You may bring your own interpreter. This person must be over 18 years of age and cannot be a party to your case.
